Road Closures on Bishop Street and Merchant Street Lane Closures on Queen Street and King Street

On Sunday, March 19, 2017, sections of Bishop Street and Merchant Street will be closed in stages for filming to allow the production crew on PROJECT NEXT to work safely in the street. Lane closures to support the filming will occur on S. King Street and on Queen Street near Bishop Street. Both King and Queen Streets will be open to normal vehicular traffic.

Starting at 5:00 AM until approximately 8:00 PM the following closures will occur:

- Merchant Street will be closed from Bethel Street to Alakea Street. A contra-flow lane will be set up on Merchant / Bethel Street intersection to allow access to the Pioneer Plaza and the Bank of Hawaii garages.
- Access to the First Hawaiian Bank garage will be allowed from Alakea Street
- Bethel Street and Alakea Street will be open to normal vehicular traffic.
- One of two Ewa-bound travel lanes of Queen Street from Bishop Street to Fort Street Mall will be closed.
- Two of five travel lanes on S. King Street between Fort Street Mall and Bishop Street will be closed
- TheBus will be rerouted off of Bishop Street and on to Nuuanu Avenue and Alakea Street

Starting at 5:00 AM until approximately 12 NOON the following closure will occur:

- Bishop Street between Beretania Street and Queen Street will be closed. A contra-flow lane from Beretania Street to Hotel Street will be open to allow access to the parking garages in the area. Bishop Street between Hotel Street and S. King Street will be open to Local Traffic Only for access to impacted garages

From approximately 12 NOON until 8:00 PM closures on Bishop Street will be reduced.

- Bishop Street between Beretania Street and S. King Street will open to normal traffic. Bishop Street between S. King Street and Queen Street will remain closed. All traffic will be diverted from Bishop Street onto S. King Street.

Drivers are asked to avoid the area if possible, take alternate routes and anticipate delays.
